want Christmas Eve to be a legislated a public holiday because:
Because everyone should be able to spend Christmas Eve with their family especially people with young children so they can get ready for Santa. And they should get paid triple!! In my opinion, the shops should shut at 6pm Christmas Eve so everyone is home!!!!! If people can't get their shopping done by then that's their fault. I am tired of my husband being exhausted on Christmas Eve and not getting to enjoy the time with the kids.

I want Christmas Eve to be a legislated a public holiday because:

As a seperated Father I don't always have the opportunity to be with my children on Christmas day. This has been in the past been a very sad day for me. All I want is to be with my children on what should be a special and happy day. It is very hard for me to negotiate, at the very least, to be with my Children on Christmas Eve, if I am rostered to work. It has, in the past been a very sad and lonely time because of this. I feel, myself and my children miss out on a very special time together. I can tell them that I love them over the phone, but it is not the same as being there with them. This is time that I can never get back. It is very depressing not being able to be with your children at Christmas.

I want Christmas Eve to be a legislated a public holiday because:

Although it is in the EBA as optional to work after 6pm on Christmas Eve, it is still a requirement for some team to work those hours and I often it is my duty to cover those hours. In doing so, I miss my opportunity to attend a church service with my parents and dinner with any family members, including my own children. Last year our store closed at 6pm Christmas eve. It gave all of our team the opportunity to be home with family at the time of year that it matters most. I look forward to having this same opportunity this year, however I do not know yet if that is what will happen. To enjoy Christmas without having to hurry home at the last minute then back to work as soon as the day is over is wonderful.

I want Christmas Eve to be a legislated a public holiday because:

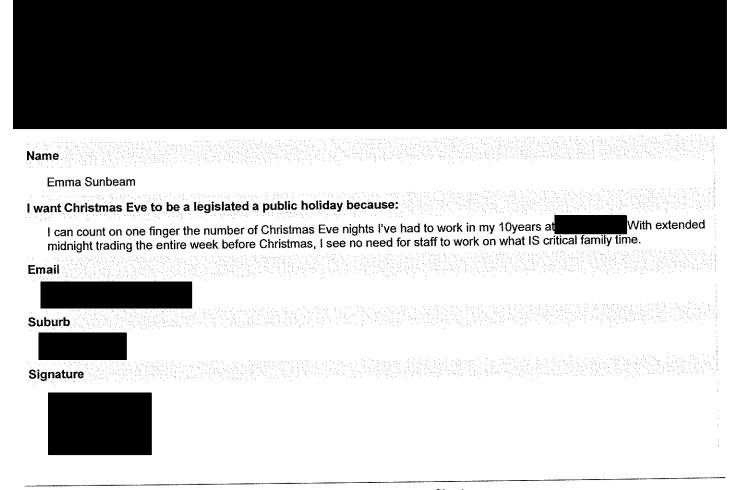

It's such an important, and special night for so many people. I don't have children, but so many of my work friends miss out on important Christmas Eve traditions with their babies because they have to be at work.

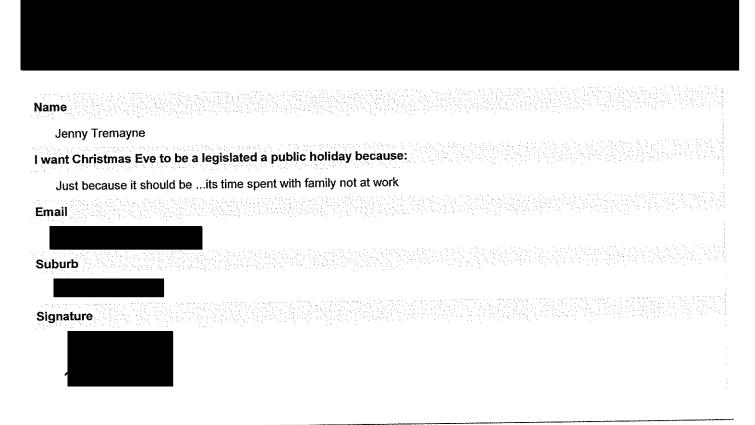

Personally, I have never been able to host Christmas lunch at my house purely because I'm generally at work for 10 hours the day before and just can't get everything necessary done. Retail workers are people too - the government needs to step back and think about all the things they love doing with their family on Christmas Eve. And then they need to realise that we want to be able to do those things too!
