I want Christmas Ev	re to be a legislated a public holiday because:
As Workers we a give up our alrear retail sector use t as much money	re not second class citizens and we deserve the same consideration as any other sector. Why should we dy encroached upon family time to work longer and harder than we already do at this time of year. The the excuse of it being what the customer wants, when in fact it boils down to greed and wanting to squeeze out of everyone as they can. Customers can only take advantage of what is available. If it's not there they ust and PLAN if they are smart. If you keep giving in and giving more the more like children they become eceive and have more available to them at the disadvantage of those that work in the retail sector.

I want Christmas Eve to be a legislated a public holiday because:
Those of us that work Christmas Eve miss out on the special opportunity to prep for Christmas. Things such as getting the food ready and presents wrapped and relaxing before the huge day Christmas becomes. The magic of Christmas is lost on food ready and presents wrapped and relaxing before the huge day Christmas becomes. The magic of Christmas is lost on food ready and their families. This is also the most dangerous day on roads with traditional after work drinks and parties and people rushing from the shops making it dangerous for workers to get home safe to be with their families
